“ David, Donald, Judy, Rita, Brian & family,

It's 1:45 A.M., Saturday, January 2, and the 1st thing I want to do is express my condolences to you. I am not at a loss for words normally but I struggle to express my real feelings right now. I have been trying to compose this tribute to your Mother and to you since Tuesday when I was informed of her passing.

There are so many good memories that come to mind when I think back to our childhood days, including her playing cards with us. If we were short a player we did not have to ask her twice if she would join us. I often felt that my name should have been Mark (Rosaaen) Thorson considering how much time I spent at your home. I do recall her saying that I was one of her kids.

Holly and I will be seeing you in a few hours to honor and pay tribute to your Mother as well as to you.

God Bless...
