Our dear Jane Wold, age 98 of Mabel, passed away April 28th.

Jane was born in La Crosse, Wisc. December 1921 to Alfred and Jenny (Indahl) Erickson. She married Hildus Wold in 1940 and moved to the farm at Mabel, Mn. Jane and Hildus had three children, Wayne, Barry and Susan. She was a partner to Hildus in all his endeavors and loved the farm and her strawberry business.

After their children left home, Jane became active serving on the County Health Board, Social Services Board and farm boards. Jane also lobbied for the arts in Minnesota and in 1982 was appointed by Governor Al Quie to the Minnesota State Arts Board.

She was instrumental in starting Ye Olde Opera (theatre and musicals) in Spring Grove, Minnesota.

She served at Trinity Lutheran Church in Spring Grove as chairman of the Organ committee, and was on the S.E. Auxiliary of Women.

She loved people and had a wonderful circle of friends, whether playing bridge or traveling together.

At the heart of Jane's life was a love of her family and a devotion to her religious beliefs.
