“ What a loss. Maurine was one of the pivotal great ladies of Spring Grove - a role model, and lots of fun! One day when I arrived in Spring Grove to take mom to Circle, Valborg informed me that Circle was being held at Maurine's cabin in Frydenlund's valley. I thought I would remember the way (having sneaked on to the Frydenlund property many times as a youth) but we followed Karen Gray in her car to be sure. Well, we tried to follow her. Karen bravely went speeding along on the gravel road, literally losing us in the dust. So, what could we do? We called Tim in St. Paul, and he told us every landmark along the way (can you see the propane tank painted like a cow?) until we got there. Small problem. There is a creek between the driveway and the cabin - forgot about that. Valborg says, no problem, just drive through it. She neglected to mention that Tim usually stays to the side, so we drove right down the center, with water coming over the hood of the Mercedes. Oops! But, we could hardly not have crossed it when all the ladies of Maurine and mom's generation boldly went before. Maurine was all ready, serving a perfect lunch with her good silver at the cabin. I was touched to observe Bible study with these hearty, warm hearted, fun loving ladies. We also had fun every year at the Military Ball with Maurine, mom, and their buds. Together, they had a lifetime of service and commitment. We are so blessed to have had Maurine as part of our extended family. Our hearts go out to Maurine's family. May the many wonderful memories comfort you. Karen

“ Dear Carol, Paul, Allen, and Eric and families, So sorry to hear about Maureen. And I had been planning to call her this month and never got around to it. I had noticed in my birthday/passing book that Uncle Anders had passed away earlier in Sept. many years ago. She was a sweet heart. So glad Paul that you brought her to Pearl's funeral in Austin. We had a nice talk. And of course about 3 years ago, when Marylou Ryan passed. So too bad it is funerals that bring us together. My memory of Maureen when I was really young is that she stayed with our family when she was attending the U and Dad placed pan lids over the door to the kitchen in such a way that when she came home they dropped to the floor scaring her and letting them know she had come home--I guess from a date??? I hope my brother Wayne from Calif. writes cuz he has more memories of Sherman and Reenie from the farm and then also of Anders. The farm in Oakland was always a fun place to visit-lots of memories. Now about 7 years ago I drove to Spring Grove and had a good family album talk with her-learned a lot. Just the year before that she met me at LaCross and Marylou showed us a good time. We spent the night there. Lots of laughs and memories. Seems to me that when your Dad died, my mom was staying with me as she had ALS and I was the care giver that winter. We were so sad to hear of his passing. Carol, when you worked in the cities, mom had you to dinner a few times. She was always happy to have you come.

I am rambling on. God is good and it was her time, evidently. I know she will be sorely missed. She is the last of our Bendickson cousins. Now it is just Sheldon, Wayne and I, as far as 1st cousins go. But of course, we are the YOUNGER ones, (Heehee, hoo. My blessings to you all for your loss, Gerry Peterson Bink
