

Gerald Oren Myhre

February 16, 1954 - October 30, 2018

Gerald Oren Myhre, age 64 of Wilmington Twp, passed away Tues. Oct. 30, 2018 from injuries sustained in a farm accident in Allamakee Co., IA

He was born Feb. 16, 1954 in Spring Grove to Oren and Shirley (Vingers) Myhre, and was a lifelong area resident.

He attended Spring Grove High School. He later became a long-distance trucker, and trucked many years with Caledonia Haulers.

On July 14, 1979 he married Naomi Tewes at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Caledonia.

He was a member of Wilmington Lutheran Church.

Gerald enjoyed Minnesota sports, especially football and baseball, he was very proud of his children and loved being "Papa Gerald", and spoiling his grandchildren. He enjoyed mowing the lawn, puttering around the farm and feeding the wild birds. He also had an amazing whistle.

Survivors include his wife Naomi of Wilmington Twp,

His children Lisa Myhre (Joe Kessler) and their children Addison, Henry and Lena of Spring Grove, Josh Myhre of Spring Grove, Angie Myhre (Tom Schultz) of Minneapolis, Mn, and Becky (Bryan) Wilhelmson of Spring Grove.

His siblings; Lynnette (Chuck) Pederson of Rushford, Mn, Mary (Robert) Staggemeier of New Albin, IA, Sue (Dean) Meyer of New Albin, IA, Linda (Jim) Hacker of Albert Lea, Mn, Paul (Rhonda) Myhre of Houston, Mn and Alan Myhre of Winona, Mn.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his son Matthew, and his two best friends, Robby Wiemerslage and Jake Jacobson.

“ To my cousins and Gerald's family-
I was so sad to hear about Gerald's death. I didn't see him often in recent years, but every time I did he has laughing and telling jokes. One great memory was of my Mom, Monica Myhre roaring with laughter at something funny Gerald said. It warms my heart to remember them laughing together. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this sad time. Sonia Meade
