Margaret (Megg) McMahon Ehler

1957 – 2026

Margaret “Megg” McMahon Ehler, age 68, passed away peacefully at her home in Spring Grove, MN, on March 2, 2026.

Born on August 29, 1957, to Nadine Josey and Robert McMahon, Megg was a woman who truly knew how to embrace life’s best moments.

Megg was never happier than when she was outside at the lakes in Michigan, soaking up the sun and the company of those she loved. Whether she was hitting the road to visit relatives or embarking on a trip with her cherished circle of girlfriends, Megg was the spark of every gathering. She loved to laugh, and her presence ensured that everyone around her had a great time, too.

Her home was a reflection of her festive spirit, especially during the holidays.

Megg took immense joy in her Christmas decorations, and her legendary collection of snowmen became a beloved tradition that family and friends looked forward to every year.

Megg is survived by her husband, Jim Ehler; her son, Jake Lanswerk; and her first husband, Roger Lanswerk. She also leaves behind a community of friends and family who will forever miss her laughter and her vibrant spirit.

In keeping with Megg's wishes, there will be no funeral service. A celebration of her life—and a final toast to the many good times shared—will be held at a later date.

Roble Funeral Home of Spring Grove is assisting the family with arrangements.

“ Dear family and friends,
Megg was my dear friend since very young. She was kind and we shared lots of fun times. When I could drive and she couldn't, we went cruising with her boyfriends car. I didn't know how to drive a stick, so I sat in the driver's seat and worked the clutch and she shifted gears while we jerked through the stop lights. Megg...you will be sadly missed... rest in peace. You're friend, Jeanne Hebden “ Megg was my best friend when we were young teenagers. Megg and Joyce Smith and me, always together. Many hours sitting on her parents front steps with that big click across the street on the courthouse. Riding around with Bob and Terry; good memories. Very sad by her passing, even though it's been a while since we have seen each other. Love you always Meggie.
