“ I feel blessed to have grown up with, and played sports with Ron. He was one of the most genuine and kindest person throughout our life. It was such an honor being his classmate and friend. “ Remembering lots of good times with Ronnie these last days, as Sherri and I came to Spring Grove before they were married and sometimes we meet up with Ronnie and Dean at the Lions Den, or Legion or the Road Runs. Ronnie was always friendly and kind and he sure knew his country music. Mike and I send our love and sympathy to Sherri and family. May Ronnie rest in God's loving arms.

“ *So sad, anyone who met Ron knew he was a book of knowledge on music. His memory was unreal. One of many memories with Ron was a Snowmobile trip to Spooner Wis. went for 2 days and put on 2 1/2 miles (we were staying about 1/2 mile from town) we enjoyed a couple of Coors lights and an occasional White Tornado. Ending one night sitting outside enjoying a Chuck Wagon Sandwich. Ronny, I/we will truly miss you.

“ *Cousin Ronnie,
What can you say about a man you grew up with? Your cousins are not only your family but your friends. There are too many good memories to list, but some of my favorites are about old cars and guns. You were always patient when it came to questions (bugging you). You will be greatly missed! Until we meet again! Debbie Gjere*
