“ We were so sorry to hear of Valborg's passing & missed her funeral as we were out-of-town. We were glad that the Lord took his time in bringing her home as we got to spend more time with this kind & caring person. When we built our home in 2004, she brought a basket of cookies & treats to welcome us to Spring Grove. We had memorable visits with her at the Law Enforcement Night Outs at the Fest Building & visiting with her at our garage sales when she would stop. What a jewel she was & her kindness was always so appreciated! Rest in Peace, Val!

“ Condolences to the Clauson family. I have so many fond memories of Valborg and the Clauson house where I seemed to be so often as a child. She was always there in every way for my mother and all of us kids, and for that I'll be forever grateful. She always found the good in things and people. Her unique and wonderful laugh was pure joy. I can't imagine the world without Valborg but then I think of all the lives she touched and realize she'll always be with us.
